

Islip, NY – Islip Town Councilman Steve Flotteron (second from left) recently paid a visit to Boy Scout Troop 371 of Brentwood.

The last remaining Boy Scout Troop in Brentwood, Troop 371 celebrates their 40th anniversary this year.

Several years ago, scouting participation in Brentwood was dwindling, but due to the efforts of Troop 371, their families, and community leaders, scouting is once again thriving in the area.

Pictured (left to right) are Assistant Scoutmaster Roy Ferrara; Councilman Flotteron; Senior Patrol Leader Samuel Machado; Scoutmaster Jason Klosowicz; and Assistant Scoutmaster Stephen LeGrady.